

J.E.T. Program Takes Off!

The Bienville Parish Police Jury's new J.E.T.(Jurors Empowering Teens) Program will take off on June 30th, 2008. This summer youth enrichment program will employ 16 to 18 year old students currently enrolled in 4-H at various jobs during their summer break. This program will not only provide a valuable first employment experience, but also focus on the development of financial management skills and workforce ethics. J.E.T. will begin on June 30, 2008, and run through August 8, 2008. All educational programs will be under the direction of Mrs. Diane Uzzle, Financial Resource Management Agent. Students can get an application by calling the LSU AgCenter Extension Service office in Arcadia at (318)263-7400 or the Police Jury office at (318)263-2019. All applications must be turned in at the Police Jury office no later than Wednesday, June 25th, 2008, by 12 noon. Applications will be reviewed and telephone notification will follow on the afternoon of the 25th to set up the interview schedule. Interviews will take place on Thursday, June 26th, 2008. Successful applicants will be notified no later than Friday, June 27th, 2008. If you have any questions, please call Mrs. Diane Uzzle at the LSU Ag-Center Extension Service office or Mr. Rodney L. Warren at the Bienville Parish Police Jury office.
